

2012 Varian Award for Achievement for Radiation Therapists

Varian Medical Systems are the generous sponsors of the prestigious Varian Award, which is presented annually to a Radiation Therapist who has contributed significantly to their profession.

The Award consists of a commemorative plaque and a monetary Travel Award. Radiation therapists who have been a member of the AIR for a minimum of 5 years are eligible. A candidate may be nominated by others or choose to self-nominate.

If you know someone who fits this bill, then why not step up and nominate them?

A letter of nomination should be forwarded to the secretary of the Radiation Therapy Advisory Panel (RTAP) via the AIR Secretariat.

Nominations for the 2012 Varian Award close 1st March 2012

The winner will be notified by March 21st 2012 and will deliver their keynote address at the 2012 ASMMIRT in Sydney.
